OBIT: The largest funeral ever held at Farmer took place last Sun. afternoon when Mrs. Lizzie Charlotte FICKLE whose sad and sudden death shocked the whole community, was laid away in the beautiful and quiet cemetery about a mile from the town.

Mrs. FICKLE was the daughter of Silas N. and Lilly I. HULBERT. She was born in Milford Twp., Defiance Co., March 16, 1886 and passed from the scenes of earth July 7th, 1904. UP to the day before her death she was in her usual good health. On Wednesday without a moments warning she was seized with convulsions. Then followed blood poisoning with death the next day.

Mrs. FICKLE was married Dec. 31st, 1903, to LeRoy FICKLE and resided in Farmer Twp. until death called her to her reward. She leaves four brothers and three sisters besides her father and mother. The community for miles around testified by their presence at the funeral to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The many flowers in the home and in the church bore silent witness to the true sympathy extended to both families by a sorrowing community. The funeral service was held in the Union Church at Farmer, Rev. John Campbell of the Lost Creek Presbyterian Church preached the sermon, taking for his text Rev. 7-17, "And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes." The music furnished by the choir was very appropriate and comforting.

Dear Melissa, I am really excited about hearing from you. The more family I can share what I have researched the happier I am. On Jan. 8th Arlene, Lane and Nancy Manley were here and we had a great day. I sent the note book containing Uncle Roy's family history home with Laree. Lee is my first cousin. He is from my mother's side of the Fickle family and I have one from Bayes, my dad's side. Onalee and I were the same age. I assume you live not too far from Lee and Lorraine. Your ancestry on the Fickle side traces back to the Immigrant Michael who came from Germany in 1734 and his son Lt. Benjamin served in the Revolution. He is my great, great grandfather. Nancy Manley is researching the female side and that traces to Rev. Wendel Wasnich who came just a hundred years later in 1834. Both have fantastic histories. I think you'll love what you learn about them. I'm going to stop right here or I'll keep rambling on and I want you to know that I received your e-m. Bless you! Roena

Dear Roena,

My name is Melissa and I am Lee & Lorraine Fickle's granddaughter (my mother is Barbara). I wondered if it would be possible to obtain a copy of the Fickle genealogy. I am in the process of creating a series of scrapbooks for my daughter, Anita, which include many of the Fickle family photos that Grandpa inherited.

I understand that you have a lot of time and expense invested in this venture, and I am more than willing to compensate you accordingly. If you are able to do this for me, please let me know.

As for Lee & Lorraine, their health is steadily declining. Grandpa is currently in Maple Lawn, a nursing home. His memory is failing and he can no longer walk any distance. Grandma is living with my parents now and her arthritis bothers her hips and back quite often. She gets out to see Grandpa three days a week if the snow doesn't keep them home bound.

Wendell's daughter, Jan, passed away around Christmas time. It came as quite a shock to everyone. I never knew many of the other cousins and such because of the huge age gap.

Blessings to you, and I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,
Melissa Litzman

SWEET BE THY REST

Sweet be thy rest, and peaceful thy sleeping;

God's way is best, thou art in His keeping.

O blessed sleep where ills ne'er molest thee!

Why should we weep? For Heaven hath blessed thee.

Sweet be thy rest.

Thy work is done, thy sowing and reaping;

Thy crown is won, and hushed is thy weeping.

From tears and woes, from earth's midnight dreary,

Thine is repose where none ever weary.

Memorial Service

In Memoriam

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head
with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Dear Roseana + All

I guess it about time
I wrote to you.

I hope this finds you all well. Lee has been sick most of the time this winter + spring. He was even in the hospital a few days.
Kidney stones. Could hardly walk to hardly get around.
He is sick about a week at a time - I am fine working every day.

How is the weather there?
We have had a lot of rain some fields aren't even plowed probably getting to late to plant much ~~much~~ but beans - they even gets wet before bailed.

Have you gone any place since we last saw you?

We planned on going fishing upper Michigan in July but finally gone that up.

I owe so many letters but just couldn't force myself to write because I wrote so many while sis was sick.

I haven't even started cleaning house after working all day long on feet my back really bothers me and I just come home and sit which I know I shouldn't do. I want to shampoo my rugs today if Lee gets back with shampoo.

I have my washing all done so better get busy on something else.

I don't know if you know Margaret has bowel surgery better than 2 months ago. Came along real good back working at store again. Haven't talked to her for about 2 weeks. We are going out some ~~ton~~ night and have supper with her & her family.

Lee just got home so have to get busy.

Write when you can.
Love to all

SOMEBODY CARES

Somebody knows when your heart aches,

And everything seems to go wrong;

Somebody knows when the shad-

Need chasing away with Somebody knows when you've lonely,

Tired, discouraged and blue;

Somebody wants you to know Him,
And know that He dearly loves you.

Somebody loves you when weary;
Somebody loves you when

Always is waiting to help you, Watches you—one of the Needing his friendship so holy,

Needing his watch so true.

His name? We call His name Jesus,
He loves everyone; He loves

Y Dear Reena; Shapvine Type
4-10-1984
I have not heard from you since last fall - I do hope that you have been well and hope that everything is all okay there.

I came to Shapvine to visit Collen, Den and the girls the last day of March and I will fly home April 24th. A friend from our church came down too to visit her son in Arlington. She will fly home the same time that I do.

Onalee has felt better than she did a year ago now, but there are days that she doesn't feel good. Her sugar is higher than it should be sometimes. She had a cold and cough before I left and she was trying to cut down on cigarettes - I wish she would quit altogether and she is trying hard.

Wendell and Myrtle have had colds & flu off and on since Thanksgiving. They get feeling better and then something comes along and they are sick again. Myrtle had a cough & runs & sneezes - course, Kandy for a long time.

All of the Fickles (my family) are well. Loney went to Florida with friends from our church - she was there nine days and stayed with Sami.
The friends have a daughter there in Florida Bible College where Sami goes to school.

Arline went to a ladies retreat last weekend - quite a few from our church went.

Loran Kent will be home from Western the Friday before Easter - they always get out real early. The 27th of April Loran and family leave for Florida and will be there for Sami's graduation the 13th of May. They will all leave for home the next day, and the following weekend we will open the store at the lake.

Lenny is still working seven days a week most of the time.
Ellen is going to Calif. to visit her sister and husband. She and her father and step mother and a sister that lives south of Quincy are going to Calif by Am-Track. They leave ~~May~~ April 25th for two and a half weeks. I am so glad that she can go - she wasn't going to go and Kenny said, "oh yes you are!"

The weather here is beautiful and spring flowers and trees so pretty. We have the windows open each day and I leave my bedroom window open all night.

Collins works from 8:30 to 1:30 five days a week - so we still have lots of time to visit. Dennis is even working weekends and evenings lately - carpenter work they are anxious to get done. Ralyn was 16 in Feb. and she works at McDonalds about 16 hrs a week. She takes home $80 to $90 every two weeks and that helps her buy things she wants.

Kennys family - Corinne, Kandy

"Happy Easter to all of you."

and Kenny Mac are all well.
Kenny was able to get Sandy's stone into Allied Products, the factory where he has worked for over 30 years in Skilledale.
Sandy works in Coldwater at a nursery school.

I have had quite a time with my right leg - two weeks ago last Friday a vein ruptured by my ankle and blood was all over - kitchen floor - on the carpet and white rugs - I phoned Loran Kent and he came fast - put gause, tape and wrapped it tightly - called the Dr. and he took me to Coldwater to the Dr.. they put a soft cast on up to my knee. Collum ~~put~~ ^{gave} the cast off last weekend but she wraps it each day up to my knee.
My left ankle has been hurting a lot for over a month - I am sure it is Arthritis - Some days
I don't know which leg to limp on.
I hope you are planning on coming to Quincy this spring or summer - Anxious to see you - Please write. Love and prayers,
Margaret

Sunset Cove Popularity Grows Over 25 Years

By BUD BARNES

QUINCY — Located about 1½ miles south of here on the east side of Marble Lake lies Sunset Cove.

The popular, 20-acre campground is the "dream-come-true" of a man named Loran Fickle, a Quincy native son.

It was while he was serving a two-year stint in the U.S. Army, in 1955-57, that Fickle developed the idea of a public campground that would be located on farmland owned by his stepfather, the late Leo Wilmarth.

After his discharge, Fickle, with the backing of his mother, Margaret Wilmarth, set to work clearing part of the farm for use as a camp site.

Top soil had to be brought in from different parts of the 140-acre farm because of the low, marshy ground where the campground was being built.

Progress on the site continued apace for several years. More land was cleared and paved roads developed.

There are today at Sunset Cove 230 sites for mobile homes. Of that number, no less than 185 sites are rented permanently during the cove's six-month tourist season (from mid-April to late October) to campers and their families from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

Major improvements to the campground over the years have included the construction of docks, the laying out of a baseball diamond, a beach for swimmers, a mini-playground for the kids, the placing of picnic tables throughout the resort area, and the construction by Fickle himself (a skilled carpenter) of a two-story, seven-unit apartment house.

A pavilion, near the beach, serves as the center of religious services on Sunday mornings during the summer months.

Sunset Cove is owned and operated by Fickle; his wife, Arlene, and his mother, Mrs. Wilmarth.

Loran Fickle's "dream-come-true" became 25 years old over the weekend of Aug. 14-15, 1982. The occasion was marked by a pig roast on Saturday and an old-fashioned ice-cream-and-cake social for all the cove's residents on Sunday.

Serving as hosts and hostesses for the two-day event were members of Loran's family and of his brother Kenny's family.

One visitor came to Sunset Cove because he said he couldn't go home to Quincy, Calif. without a t-shirt that said, "Quincy, Mich."

While the Cove still reflects that old time homey atmosphere, some things do change. In 1957, the cost of a night at the campground was $1.50. Today it's $20.

Part of the fun of owning a campground is keeping up with the many families who spend their summer in Quincy.

"Do you know that we have some fourth generation campers here?" said Fickle. "That's pretty good. It's nice to know so many friendly people."

Dear Roena;

I don't know if you will remember me, I am Margant (Fickel) Wilmarth, I was Kenneth's wife.

Annie has been here at my home twice lately and we have had such nice visits. She brought your interesting Christmas letters for me to read and I enjoyed them so much - almost like I had kept in touch with you.

Annie called me this A.M. and we wish you could get up here for a few days visit. I have a spare bedroom always ready for a guest, and I would love to have you come and stay with me. I will be sure my children, grandchildren and those great grandchildren come to see you. I just hope you will be able to come.

Annie hasn't been very well. I

3 the Jordan River. All of the places mentioned in the Bible have such an extra special meaning to me now - since I was there.

My family are all well. Kenneth has three grown children - Corinne graduated from Central Mich U. and she works for the Quincy dentist. Kenneth Mar II graduated from Chedoke Institute of Tech. and he works for the Surge Milk Co. near Quincy. He has little Kenny Grant - 2 yrs. old. Kandeth Jo has Jamie 5 yrs. old and Joshua $3\frac{1}{2}$.

Loran has three children. Larni is at Florida Bible College - her 5th yr. Loran Kent II is a Soph. at Western Mich U. Laney is in 6th grade.

Laney called me this eve and she wants to do a genealogy report on the Fickle family and ancestors. I called Onalee for some help on it - and she thought you probably could send me some information. I have the information you wrote her about

Mark and Washed, the Sea of Galilee
- Michael and Margaret Finkle - they would be Laney's great, great, great, great, great, grandparents - I believe.
Any information :- names, dates of birth & death - occupation - where they lived - ect - would be appreciated. Laney is an all A. student and she is very anxious to have a good report. She told me that one of her girl friends told her that her ancestors had been traced back to before Christ was born - that they had a record of all the generations. I asked Laney if she really believed her friend.

I hope you are well, Raena, and am looking forward to seeing you and hope to hear from you.
Please give my 'special thoughts' to Lelah.

In God's Love -

7. I presume she has written you about her health problems. She seemed to feel better when she was here Sun.

I had a serious problem with my back about four years ago. Two of my vertebrae broke in two and two of my discs disintegrated from Osteoporosis of the spine. I was in bed most of one year - wearing a hyperextension back brace when not in bed. God has been so good to me and I get along quite well now and can do my own work now.

I went to "The Holy Land" two years ago for 14 days with our East Algansu Baptist Church group. I was the oldest one in our group of 34 and the others were all so good to me. A friend of mine is an R.N. and she went too and roomed with me or I wouldn't have attempted the trip. Often I think about Ceraul, being where Jesus lived and worked, the Sea of Galilee,

Dear Raena,

It has been such a long time since I have heard from you. I hope you are well.

I think of you often and hope when spring comes, that you will get to Ohio and Michigan again.

I haven't seen Onalee for some time but we talk on the phone several times each week. She seems to feel about the same - some days ~~are~~ better than others. Lee stops to see her real often and Wendell and Myrtle stop each week.

Onalee has a police scanner and she enjoys listening to it - she also has cable T.V. and likes the old movies.

We are all well here and seem to keep busy. I worked on my income tax this week and have it ready to copy

2 over for our tax acct. I must get started on the resorts soon.

Onelia's cousin, Willhelmina, died not long ago. She was going to the funeral with Lee and Lorraine but the roads were so icy that morning - so they couldn't go. She had cancer and had been in the hospital since June.

Tami got home for Christmas and with Loran Kent home too, they all had such a nice holiday season. Loran's are planning to go to Fla. in May when Tami graduates. The store will open right after they get back.

We had almost two hundred trailer tax slips to send out since New Year's - each day some of the checks come in and I have to record them. It gives me something to do - as I don't get out lately because of our bad weather. It was 15° below this A.M. still have plenty of snow and it is icy in places. Loran brings my mail in each A.M. and someone gets what few groceries I need.

Myrtle is going to Detroit for several days when their great grandchild is born. Onlee and I chuckled when we said that Wendell will do just as he pleases while she is gone.

Kenny has done a little snow-mobiling lately - He took little Kenny Grant with him after Christmas - (He and grandpa had a lot of fun.)

Have you had a lot of snow and cold weather? Are there a lot of ski resorts in your area?

My gas bill came yesterday and it was $177.00+. It is a good thing that I have ~~the~~ three bed-rooms ~~the~~ turned off.

How is cousin Lelah? ds gone for our tax acct. &

✓ she in a rest home now?
Do you hear from her?

My dear neighbor lady (2)
the south) is in the hospital again. She was there just before Christmas. She suffers so with rheumatoid arthritis
It is supposed to get up to 3° above today and down to below zero again tonight.

Ellen comes over every few days and burns my papers yesterday she brought me some baked apples - they had brown sugar, also and nuts in them and they were thickened a little. ^{Soooo} good!

When did you get home from your Alaska trip
I will be anxious to hear about it when you come next time.

Hope all are well there.

Love and prayers
Margaret

Dear Poena, Tues P.M.
I was so glad to hear from you and to know you arrived home all okay. I still think of how much I enjoyed having you here and I was so happy that my family could meet you. I am really looking forward to your coming back this summer.

We are all well here and seem to keep busy. Loran and Arlene opened the store last Friday so I came down each afternoon last week at 4:30 to help with last minute signs, ect.

It looks like we are going to have a good season, we have rented a dozen ^{boats} to new people by the year already.

Loran and Loran Kent are building another floating dock, space for eight boats and last week they put the large floating dock out. It has space for sixteen boats.

The beauty of nature adds a joy to each new day.

Delore has been planting flowers and yesterday we filled eighteen hanging baskets with red geraniums and vines. I hope to get my porch boxes planted tomorrow. I bought a flat of yellow marigolds, white and dark blue cascading petunias.

I just called Onalee - she said Lee came today and re-to-tilled a place for a garden and flowers in her backyard. Lee and Lorraine moved to Coldwater a couple of weeks ago. They are still on good terms but Onalee couldn't keep on paying for everything like she had been doing - so they moved. She is happy to have the bedroom now and a bed to sleep in. She bought a lot of flowers to plant and Lee is going to make her planter to put out in front. She is sorting over things and plans to have a yard sale before long. Clothes and misc she doesn't need any more.

Laney is playing soft ball now - most of the players are boys but that doesn't stop her. She is a good hitter and the boys are glad to have her on their team.

Wendell and Myrtle are here at the lake now. but I haven't seen them this afternoon. Onalee said they stopped at her house this A.M. I am so glad.

they will see her often now that Lee has moved out. I asked her to come out next Sunday but she didn't say she would for sure. She said she had so much work to do - I told her it would be there when she got home - I hope she will come.

Do you have any idea what time of the summer you will be coming to Michigan? I am so glad you are planning to come here again and I hope you can stay at least a week or more. I think you will enjoy the scenery here at the lake.

8:30 P.M. Adeline just brought me home and I am glad the house is warm, it was chilly in the store this evening.

I believe I will wait a few days before I plant the porch boxes. I would hate to have the flowers

I am glad you found things in Ohio going fairly well and I am glad that you had a chance to see Carmon and Dale and Salva.

Loran and family had a super nice vacation and they were so happy to be able to spend some time with Lami. She isn't coming home this summer - can't make enough money so she wait have to work next school year. She received $1,000.00 scholarship from the college.

I know the cherry blossoms must have been beautiful. I always love the fruit tree blossoms in the spring. My lilacs will soon be in full bloom.

Onalee said to tell you that she will try and get a letter written to you soon. She has had such a lot of work to do lately - she is getting the farm house ready to sell, has been cleaning it, and bringing things into town so that she can advertise the house.

I hope you and your brother and wife are well. I think of you often and look forward to your coming.

Love and prayers,

OBITUARIES

MYRTLE FICKLE

Myrtle Fickle, age 81, of Coldwater died Jan. 14, 1999 at Foote Hospital in Jackson.

Mrs. Fickle was born February 25, 1917 in Steuben County, Ind., the daughter of Loren and Pearl (Harger) Forrister.

Dear Roenna & Al - Mary -

So, sorry I didn't get Al's card out sooner.

Weri both fine, just had the flu but much better now.

Hope, this finds you all fine. Since, we saw you last, we sold our home, there on Balfour Dr, last summer, bought a nice trailer in the trailer Court, there on Garfield Ave. Across from the fair grounds. We love it, haven't had much time in it yet, as we left for the winter in Fla. 1st Nov. About time to go home, and we can hardly wait. We, sold our trailer here in Fla, and intend to not come back. It's just too much on me driving, and traffi. As, we get older, we can't do things to keep up our homes.

We have one more Great Grand Child. A boy named John Wayne Barbac. So Grandpa Fickle calls him "Duke".

We sure have a wonderful family. We thank God for all he's given us, and such nice Grandchildren.

Don't see much of them.

Mary, I sure would love to have some of those wonderful cookies you make. Thought we'd might make it out your way, but after driving down here in Fla, I've changed my mind on traveling over.

Will sign off wishing you all the best in 88.

Do, come & see us were

FICKLE: Over 1,500 attend service

attendance at the memorial service — held in the gymnasium at Quincy High School on Friday, Dec. 10, 2004 — was a sound indicator of how many lives Tami touched in her 44 years here in Branch County. There was not an empty seat to be had in the bleachers in the gymnasium or in the seats on the gym floor on that afternoon. Several of those in attendance were offered a time to speak to those gathered about what Tami meant to them. Many chose to take advantage of this time and heartfelt words were shared.

"She was always helping somebody else," Loran Fickle, Tami's father, said. "She worried more about other people than she did herself.

"We knew she was special but we didn't realize how many other people knew she was."

The pageant is set for 8 p.m. on Feb. 5 and the public is welcome to attend.

"I won't miss this year," Fickle said.

For more information about the scholarship fund, you may call Holroyd at (517) 617-0859. Donations may be sent to the Quincy branch of the National City Bank. Those sending donations are asked to memo the scholarship fund on their donation.

Sunset Cove Popularity Grows Over 25 Years

By BUD BARNES

QUINCY — Located about 1½ miles south of here on the east side of Marble Lake lies Sunset Cove.

The popular, 20-acre campground is the "dream-come-true" of a man named Loran Fickle, a Quincy native son.

It was while he was serving a two-year stint in the U.S. Army, in 1955-57, that Fickle developed the idea of a public campground that would be located on farmland owned by his stepfather, the late Leo Wilmarth.

After his discharge, Fickle, with the backing of his mother, Margaret Wilmarth, set to work clearing part of the farm for use as a camp site.

Top soil had to be brought in from different parts of the 140-acre farm because of the low, marshy ground where the campground was being built.

Progress on the site continued apace for several years. More land was cleared and paved roads developed.

There are today at Sunset Cove 230 sites for mobile homes. Of that number, no less than 185 sites are rented permanently during the cove's six-month tourist season (from mid-April to late October) to campers and their families from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

Major improvements to the campground over the years have included the construction of docks, the laying out of a baseball diamond, a beach for swimmers, a mini-playground for the kids, the placing of picnic tables throughout the resort area, and the construction by Fickle himself (a skilled carpenter) of a two-story, seven-unit apartment house.

A pavilion, near the beach, serves as the center of religious services on Sunday mornings during the summer months.

Sunset Cove is owned and operated by Fickle; his wife, Arlene, and his mother, Mrs. Wilmarth.

Loran Fickle's "dream-come-true" became 25 years old over the weekend of Aug. 14-15, 1982. The occasion was marked by a pig roast on Saturday and an old-fashioned ice-cream-and-cake social for all the cove's residents on Sunday.

Serving as hosts and hostesses for the two-day event were members of Loran's family and of his brother Kenny's family.

Annual scholarship to be given in memory of Fickle-Sparks

BY HEATHER JEFFREY

EXECUTIVE EDITOR

QUINCY — The local community recently suffered a great loss.

A long-time school board trustee, 1978 Quincy High School graduate, athletic mom," former Tip-Up queen and miss congeniality award-winner; Tami L. Fickle-Sparks, unexpectedly passed away on Monday, Dec. 6, 2004.

One of the events Fickle-Sparks took much pride in being a part of was the annual Quincy Chain of Lakes Tip-Up Festival, which is slated to take place on Feb. 12 and Feb. 13 at Tip-Up Island in Quincy.

In memory of Tami, Cindi Holroyd, classmate and long-time friend of Tami, has spear-headed an annual Tami Fickle-Sparks Memorial Scholarship campaign.

"We graduated together and I have known her since high school," Holroyd said. "She was such a genuine person that I think her memory should be honored.

"I thought that (the memorial scholarship) would be a good way to keep her in the memory of the community."

The scholarship will go to a senior contestant in the annual Quincy Chain of Lakes Tip-Up Pageant each year.

The criteria for the chosen recipient will consist of their scholastic record, community service and other overall categories.

The amount of the scholarship has yet to be determined.

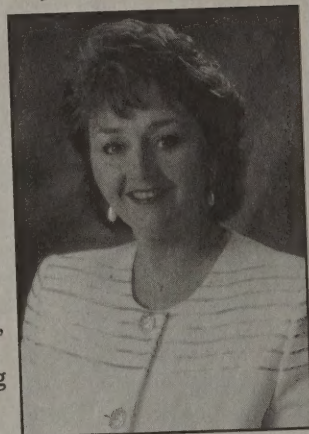

"The amount depends on the donations we get," Holroyd said, adding that a certificate will be given to the recipient on pageant night and the actual scholarship will be given during the annual Senior Honor's Night ceremony.

At the pageant this year — which is set for Feb. 5 at Tibbits Opera House — a special tribute to Sparks-Fickle is scheduled to take place.

Usually a Fickle family member is on hand to greet you when you enter through the front door. Often, you're also treated to songs of the '40s and '50s played on old Wurlitzer juke box.

The store is packed with literally thousands of items, ranging from groceries to plumbing supplies to antique furniture and reproductions of antique furniture.

LORAN FICKLE

As Tami Sparks says, "You can find a gift for anyone here."

You want afghans? There's a huge selection of them tucked neatly away in one section of the store.

There's a huge collection of lace items, too, including table cloths, doilies and mantle scarves. Antique-style pitchers and bowls and chinaware are also sold.

Old-time signs advertising Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Vernor's ginger ale and other beverages line the shelves and aisles.

One section of the store is referred to by Mr. Fickle as "Neon Alley." It's filled with numerous neon-lighted signs, each one for sale and each advertising a particular soft drink or beverage of bygone years.

Are you interested in gifts for the college student, such as a computer stand or a desk? You'll find them in the Sunset Cove country store and gift shop.

How about gifts for the kids, such as dolls and teddy bears? The store has plenty of vinyl and collectible dolls scattered throughout the premises, all with reasonable price tags.

"Beanie dolls are especially popular these days," says Loran Fickle. The beanie-dolls fill a showcase at the front of the store.

This is the year that commemorates Michigan Lighthouses. To mark the occasion, the store has a huge display of miniature lighthouses for sale.

For bird lovers, the store offers numerous birdhouses of various shapes and sizes.

Also available are items of an unusual nature which are hard to come by in any other store of this type.

For example, there's that eight-foot-tall Statue of Liberty that greets a boater who pulls up to the dock in front of the store. "The Statues of Liberty have been one of our most popular items this year," says Fickle.

Elsewhere in the store there's a carousel horse once ridden by children on a merry-go-round at a circus or county fair.

Another rare item is a life-like version of famed comics Laurel & Hardy riding on what looks like an old-time railroad gandy car.

New this year in the store is a collection of imported cigars, housed in an air-tight plastic case to keep the cigars fresh.

The Fickles are especially proud of the reproductions of Victorian-style furniture their store offers. Included is such furniture as oak closets, beds, lamps, pie safes, china cabinets, bookcases, curios, roll-top desks and large, ornate cupboards known as armoires. Much of the furniture can be found on the second floor of the two-story structure.

Mr. Fickle makes several trips a year to different parts of the country looking for rare and unusual merchandise. He obtains some items at auctions, others from dealers and still others from factory outlets.

Fickle himself is a bundle of energy. He works hard and two knee operations don't appear to have slowed him down one bit.

The store and the adjoining campground are a dream come true for Fickle, who conceived the idea of a campground during his years in the army during the Korean War.

When he got out of the army, in the mid-1950s, he took steps to make that dream come true. He purchased 35 acres of farmland for the campground from his stepfather, the late Leo Wilmarth. He added to this with the purchase of additional acreage from neighboring farmers over the years.

He built the campground in 1957. Building it was a monumental feat. Because the front of the future campground site was on low ground near the lake, the job involved the movement of tons of dirt from elsewhere on the Wilmarth farm to the site.

Fickle's brother, the late Kenny Fickle (who passed away in July of this year and to whom Loran was very devoted), helped with the project.

The campground now has 300 permanent, year-round camp sites and six sites for overnight campers.

The two-story building that houses the country store and gift shop was erected the year after the campground was built, in 1958. The building has been added onto a couple of times but it's basically the same structure that it was when it was erected.

The store is open seven days a week from May through December. Its summer hours are 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m. During the fall and through Dec. 31, its hours are 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

who often consume as many as 300 gallons of ice cream a week, according to Mr. Fickle.

Usually a Fickle family member is on hand to greet you when you enter through the front door. Often, you're also treated to songs of the '40s and '50s played on old Wurlitzer juke box.

The store is packed with literally thousands of items, ranging from groceries to plumbing supplies to antique furniture and reproductions of antique furniture.

LORAN
FICKLE

As Tami Sparks says, "You can find a gift for anyone here."

You want aghorns? There's a huge selection of them tucked neatly away in one section of the store.

There's a huge collection of lace items, too, including table cloths, dishes and mantle scarves. Antique-style pitchers and bowls and chinaware are also sold.

Old-time signs advertising Coca-Cola, Pepsi Cola, Vernor's ginger ale and other beverages line the shelves and aisles.

One section of the store is referred to by Mr. Fickle as "Neon Alley." It's filled with numerous neon-lighted signs, each one for sale and each advertising a particular soft drink or beverage of bygone years.

Are you interested in gifts for the college student, such as a computer stand or a desk? You'll find them in the Sunset Cove country store and gift shop.

How about gifts for the kids, such as dolls and teddy bears? The store has plenty of vinyl and collectible dolls scattered throughout the premises, all with reasonable price tags.

"Beanie dolls are especially popular these days," says Loran Fickle. The beanie dolls fill a showcase at the front of the store.

This is the year that commemorates Michigan Lighthouses. To mark the occasion, the store has a huge display of miniature lighthouses for sale.

For bird lovers, the store offers numerous birdhouses of various shapes and sizes.

Also available are items of an unusual nature which are hard to come by in any other store of this type.

For example, there's that eight-foot-tall Statue of Liberty that greets a boater who pulls up to the dock in front of the store. "The statue of Liberty has been one of versions of famed comics Llaner's Hardy riding on what looks like an old-time railroad gandy car.

New this year in the store is a collection of imported cigars, housed in an air-tight plastic case to keep the cigars fresh.

The Fickles are especially proud of the reproductions of Victorian-style furniture their store offers. Included is such furniture as oak closets, beds, lamps, the safes, china cabinets, bookcases, chairs, roll-top desks and large, ornate cupboards known as armoires. Much of the furniture can be found on the second floor of the country store.

Mr. Fickle makes several trips a year to different parts of the country looking for new and unusual merchandise. He obtains some items at auctions, others from dealers and still others from factory outlets.

Fickle himself is a bundle of energy. He works hard and, two knee operations don't appear to have slowed him down one bit.

The store and the adjoining campground are a dream come true for Fickle, who conceived the idea of a campground during his years in the army during the Korean War.

When he got out of the army in the mid-1950s, he took steps to make that dream come true. He purchased 35 acres of farmland for the campground from his stepfather, the late Leo Wilmarth. He added to this with the purchase of additional acreage from neighboring farmers over the years.

He built the campground in 1957. Building it was a monumental feat. Because the front of the future campground site was on low ground near the lake, the job involved the movement of tons of dirt from elsewhere on the Wilmarth farm to the site.

Fickle's brother, the late Kenny Fickle (who passed away in July of this year and to whom Loran was very devoted), helped with the project.

The campground now has 100 permanent, year-round camp sites and six sites for overnight campers.

The two-story building that houses the country store and gift shop was erected the year after the campground was built, in 1958. The building has been added onto a couple of times but it's basically the same structure that it was when it was erected.

The store is open seven days a week from May through December. Its summer hours are 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. During the fall and through Dec. 31, its hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of
the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence
of mine enemies: thou anointest my head
with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

FICKLE

LIZZIE WIFE OF ROY FICKLE
MAR. 16, 1886 - JULY 7, 1904

FICKLE

OBITUARY.

The largest funeral ever held at Farmer took place last Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Lizzie Charlotte Fickle whose sad and sudden death shocked the whole community, was laid away in the beautiful and quiet cemetery about a mile from the town.

Mrs. Fickle was the daughter of Silas N. and Lilly I. Hulbert. She was born in Milford twp., Defiance Co., March 16th, 1886, and passed from the scenes of earth July 7th, 1904. Up to the day before her death she was in her usual good health. On Wednesday without a moment's warning she was seized with convulsions. Then followed blood poisoning with death the next day.

Mrs. Fickle was married Dec. 31st, 1903, to LeRoy Fickle and resided in Farmer twp., until death called her to her reward. She leaves four brothers and three sisters besides her father and mother. The community for miles around testified by their presence at the funeral to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The many flowers in the home and in the church bore silent witness to the true sympathy extended to both families by a sorrowing community. The funeral services were held in the Union church at Farmer, Rev. John Campbell of the Lost Creek Presbyterian church preached the sermon, taking for his text Rev. 7-17. "And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes." The music furnished by the choir was very appropriate and comforting.
